What's New With Karen

Welcome to June 2020! In the early hours of this very morning, Sunday 31 May, my beautiful Mother, Dawn Patricia Vella (1.3.43-31.5.20) (Maiden Name: Quinlivan) passed peacefully at the Royal Melbourne Hospital, Palliative Care Ward. I wish to dedicate this newsletter to celebrating my Beautiful Mother's life rather than reflect with sadness. Mum would want it this way! As a tribute, I would like to tell all who had the honor to know my Mother, and those who did not, want a remarkable woman she was. Mum's life was a life of love. She absolutely loved her children, her grandchildren, and great grandchildren, and the loved ones and friends who played such a meaningful part in Mum's life. She was a peaceful, devoted, caring and selfless person whose caring ways endeared so many to her. Mum has left the greatest legacy with her children. That is the legacy of a woman whose life was about love and caring for others (more than oneself). Mum was brave in facing her Cancer battle which went on for 2 years and 1 week, never once complaining, despite a lot of suffering. Thank you so much to all the beautiful kind souls (and the angelic nurses at the Palliative Care Ward) who offered words of comfort, cooking meals, visiting, giving gifts, doing chores and showing Mum just how loved she was. Mum came into this world with the most inner and outer beauty I have ever witnessed in a human, and she left the world looking even more beautiful than ever. Rest peacefully, my adored Mother, in God's care with all my love. Love Karen XXX (My Mother: Refined, Elegant, Practical, Kind, Caring, Intelligent).

A MOTHER IS ONE WHO CAN TAKE THE PLACE OF ALL OTHERS BUT WHOSE PLACE NO ONE ELSE CAN TAKE.

Yours sincerely,
