What's New With Karen

Welcome to November. Yesterday Australia awoke to the sad news, that an Australian icon, Bert Newton, had passed away overnight, aged 83. Like myself, I'm sure most Australians will be saddened, reflective & touched by the sad loss. Our thoughts and prayers are firstly for Bert's, family, including Patti, his wife of 46 years, their 2 children, Matthew & Lauren, and 6 grandchildren. Albert Watson Newton was born on 23 July 1938 in Fitzroy, Melbourne and was educated at St Joseph's Marist Brothers Roman Catholic College, where it is said he entertained thoughts of becoming a Priest (an early sign of his enduring love of humanity and his ongoing commitment to his faith). Bert (along with past TV icons, Graham Kennedy & Don Lane) was a familiar face on our television sets growing up, and provided us Australians with so many humorous and entertaining moments. Apart from his award-winning career branching across many decades in television, radio, and theatre, Bert was a true loving, wonderful family man, a man who always put on a smile (despite dealing with difficult health conditions particularly over the past year, which included a leg amputation). It is said that Bert could make anyone feel at ease and comfortable. He could mix with unflappable ease with Film Stars, Celebrities, Politicians and the everyday man, and people felt better after being in his company. As we pay our respects to Bert, may we all take time to reflect on some of our fondest memories of how Bert entertained us over the many years, and in honour celebrate his remarkable career, but more importantly, the remarkable man he was, himself. God Bless You Bert, Rest in Peace, Free of Pain. Love Karen XXX
